

*Fullerton First
United Methodist Church
Father's Day, June 20, 2010*

Worship clears the mind and strengthens the Soul. Our Worship begins with the first notes of the Prelude. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to seek and praise our Creator.

If you request a prayer, you are welcome to fill out a prayer request card located in the holder on back of each pew. Your prayer will be read during the Pastoral Prayer. Our Acolytes will pick up your prayer request during the Anthem.

 Indicates: Please stand, if you are able.*

INTROIT

"Seek Ye First"

FFUMC Youth/Praise Band

Seek ye first the kingdom of god, and his righteousness;
And all things shall be added unto you.

Alleluia, alleluia.

Ask and it shall be given unto you; seek and ye shall find;
Knock and the door shall be opened unto you.

Alleluia, alleluia.

All shall not live by bread alone; but by every word.
That proceeds from the mouth of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia.

 CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsively)

Dani Applerose

One: On this day when we celebrate Father's, we acknowledge the uniqueness of each relationship for each person.

Many: For some of us, our father's love is like God's love -- too deep, too long, too wide, too strong to measure.

One: Some of our dads are here; some have gone to their glory; some may have been absent from our lives.

Many: And for some, the role of Father, has been filled by the love of friend, uncle, grandfather and brother.

One: All of us are shaped by the relationship of those prominent men in our lives.

All: On this day when we remember what it means to have a father or be a father, we recognize the importance of fathers in our communities. We pledge as a congregation to love and nurture the fathers among us so that they will manifest the love of God in all that they do.

UNISON PRAYER

Logan Eaton

Oh God our Creator, today is full of so much joy! We thank you for the gift of fathers, grandfathers, uncles and brothers. We thank you for the lessons they have taught us, the love they have shown us, the guidance that has been given to us. How grateful we are that you care so much about us that you choose such men to help us on our paths. We also remember those fathers and father figures that have left us to be with You. Today is also full of joy as we celebrate our graduates. We celebrate their accomplishments and pray for each of them as they begin a new chapter in their lives. Provide them guidance as they venture forth. It's in your name that we pray these things. Amen.

SENIOR BLESSING

Lord, thrust me boldly and vigorously out into life. Pull me away from my easy comfort and out into the struggles of humanity. Send me into the arena where people strive to rid the world of injustice. Lead me out in the field of honor where others ahead of me have thrown down the gauntlet to poverty and ignorance and fear. Bring the shaping of noble ideals and the performance of compassion close home to my mind and hand. Summon me with a voice I dare not disregard to the hard and unfinished task of my own life and heart. String my will, not my weak wishes, but to responsible duty and my inescapable destiny. In the name of Jesus who calls us to follow him. Amen.
