UNISON PRAYER

God of love and grace. Like the disciples, we are often lost, lonely and hungry. Sometimes, we toil hard in life at meaningless work. Sometimes, we follow so-called gurus of the age hoping for enlightened paths. We ignore the voice of tender love and deep caring of Christ. We ignore gentle invitations from Christ to commune deeply with him. We fail to feed those around us who are hungry in body and soul. Help us to listen to your voice of love and wisdom in the midst of vociferous claims of the world and follow your still, small voice. May our life always be a resounding faithful "Yes" to your question and call: "Do you love me?" In Christ, Amen.
